Norma Finds New Orleans Cyclist An Extra Kindly Host

Leaving New Orleans Sunday, June 15, 1947

Dear Mom:

An urgent letter of invitation came to me here from a Mr. Jim Croney of New Orleans, himself "for years a cyclist" that I visit him and his wife in their home.

His letter came as a result of my picture and article in the New Orleans paper. I put it in with my things and forgot about it till Thursday (12th) when I decided to leave New Orleans. It took me till noon to pack my things, then I remembered this letter and a few things in town that I wanted to do. It was hard saying goodbye to my roommates but as usual, my

O.B. STATIONERS STORE CHANGES HANDS JULY 14

Another change in ownership in the Newport avenue business district will become official Monday when Col. and Mrs. Thomas Marks complete the sale of the Ocean Beach Stationers store to Mr. and Mrs. P. Fred Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Clark came to San Diego last December from Hood River, Ore., having sold the Columbia Gorge Hotel, which they had owned and operated for 12 years. They are now living in San Diego, but hope to move to Ocean Beach in the future. Of this part of the country Mr. Clark says, "We had come here only for the winter, but when winter was over we somehow just weren't able to leave."

Col. and Mrs. Marks announce that they have no definite plans, except to "take it easy, for a while."

Recreation Center Committee Will Meet on July 14

The overall committee of the Ocean Beach Community Recreation Center has planned potluck supper for its regular quarterly meeting, to be held at the Center next Monday evening, July 14, at 6:30. This committee is representative of Ocean Beach organizations. Mrs. Donald C. Muchmore is committee chairman, and Harry Masters heads the supper organizers.

Among those expected to attend are: Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Muchmore, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Swenson, Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Dave L. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Steven D. Young, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moss Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Farrar, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Orrick, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sholly, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lancaster. Representing the city recreation department will be Miss Pauline Des Granges and the two directors, Mrs. Lois Deason and John Wood.

Two informative movies are to be presented, one entitled "Playtown, U.S.A." and "1000 Recreation," with Miss Des Granges in charge.

This will be the second regular meeting of this kind held at the new center building.

FATHER HARRIS ON TRIP

Father Philip F. Harris, of the Trinity Episcopal church, left June 30 for Barre, Vt. on a combination business-pleasure trip. While in the East, he will make Barre his headquarters and visit some of the larger eastern cities, including New York and Washington, D. C. His chief purpose is to encourage interest in church-sponsored education and to increase his knowledge of teaching methods by an exchange of ideas with other educational leaders there. The date of his return is as yet indefinite. In his absence, Father Haskins of La Jolla will fill the pulpit at Trinity.

Capt. John Manning Speissegger, Supply Corps, U. S. Navy, ret., and Mrs. Speissegger, and their daughter Mrs. Kenneth Dillon Bailey are now residing at 1927 Catalina Blvd. After moving in this week, Captain Speissegger served on the U. S. S. Massachusetts during the first year of the war and served as Fleet Supply officer of the Fourth Fleet on the Staff of Admiral Jonas Ingram, U. S. Navy.

Kiwanians Hear About Legislature From Capt. Luckel

Kiwanians of Ocean Beach Tuesday night heard an informal talk by Capt. Frank Luckel, Assemblyman for the local district, on his experiences at his first session of the state legislature ended two weeks ago. Vice President Harry Masters presided, President Henry Holman being in Chicago for the Kiwanis International convention. Frank McElwee officiated as program chairman for the evening, introducing the speakers.

Luckel said he liked all of them and was well impressed with all the legislators he met, stating that they were in the main for "good, clean government, but the majority evidently were not economy minded. The $650 million budget decided on is several times what it was under the Olson administration."

Luckel said he voted for increased expenditure where it was "imperatively needed, but on a lot of these bills I voted no." He mentioned that he voted against the increase in gas tax and said he saw no considerable return in improved roads in San Diego to compensate for the 5- or 6-million dollars in gas tax to be paid by San Diegans per year because of the boost.

After mentioning some of the main controversial bills that did not pass he said the main failure of the legislative session was "to do something constructive about the housing shortage in this state."

Program Chairman Dave Chandler announced that next week's program will be a talk by Walter McAdams of San Diego on "Salesmanship." For the following week a picnic to include the Kiwanis-Annes is planned, with Milton Lancaster, chairman of the program committee announced.

O.B. Cleaners Open Second Plant At 4852 Voltaire St.

Ocean Beach Cleaners this week opened their new cleaning plant at 4852 Voltaire St. in the brick building recently purchased from Al Hunt. The interior has been entirely remodeled to fit it for the new cleaning industry and will make the second plant for this firm, the first being at 2179 Bacon St.

The new 25 x 75 foot plant is being equipped with entirely new cleaning machines of the latest type, including Mercury cleaning unit, Hoffman press and puff iron. The cleaning unit is in a fire-proof room. The main room is for pressing, ironing and clothes hanging racks. Other rooms are a steam spotting room and a steam cleaning annex building under construction at the rear. An office, a sewing room and front room with counter for customers also are included.

POINT LOMA STABLES SOLD TO COUPLE MOVING HERE FROM NEW YORK

The Point Loma Riding Stables at 2074 Catalina Blvd. were bought this week by Mr. and Mrs. William J. Dubois of Rochester, N. Y., who are re-establishing the enterprise with the intention of making their permanent residence on a section of the property. At present the couple lives in Pacific Beach.

Formerly owned and operated by Mrs. Glada Dean, the stables are undergoing many improvements. The new owners have sprayed the 32 stalls with white paint, and plan to provide saddles and other necessary riding equipment, as well as a hay-wagon (which they have painted white with red fluorescent trim as a safety measure). The wagon will be available for hayrides of at least 20 and not more than 32 riders.

The string of horses will include at least 10 bays, blacks, and roans and facilities for boarding privately owned horses also will be provided.

The News extends its sincere good wishes to the Dubois for success in their venture and welcomes them to Ocean Beach as residents.

S. G. Fold Elected Legion Comdr. At Thursday Meet

INSTALLATION TO BE HELD NEXT THURSDAY EVENING

Clyde A. Wright Post of the American Legion elected officers at their Thursday night meeting in the Woman's clubhouse. New officers are S. G. Fold, commander; Roy Andersen, first vice commander; Cor Driscoll, second vice commander; H. T. Webster Sr., historian; Vincent Duvall, sergeant at arms; Stephen J. Lis, chaplain; and J. D. Woodmansee, service officer. The additional board member, besides the officers above, will be Paul Driscoll.

The new officers will be installed at the next meeting, Thursday evening, July 17, and will serve for one year. Outgoing Commander William L. Brittain presided at the Thursday night meeting and will turn the gavel over to Mr. Fold during the installation ceremonies next week. The new adjutant, to be appointed by the new commander, will be announced following installation.

Boy Survives 50-Foot Fall At Local Cliffs

The beach cliff at the foot of Hill Street was the scene of a near-fatal fall Sunday, when 13-year-old Davey Roberts of 1518 A St. tumbled 50 feet, landing on some loose boards at beach level. Police credited the boards with breaking the fall enough to save the boy's life.

Young Roberts had been visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Lucille Browning, of 858 Cornish Dr., and was playing with his young cousins at the time of the fall. Ocean Beach lifeguards, police and firemen participated in the rescue, which was effected by lowering a boatswain's chair over the face of the cliff and hauling the boy to safety.

Taken to the County Hospital, the boy's injuries were described as not serious. He suffered bruises of the face and body.

LOCAL SOFTBALL TEAM DROPS GAME ON JULY 8 TO MISSION BAY REALTY

In an A.A.A. encounter at University Heights playground Tuesday night, July 8, the Ocean Beach Merchants' softball team dropped a 6-to-1 decision to the Mission Bay Realty nine. The Ocean Beach men, playing one of their poorest games of the season, were badly outthit and outplayed. Summaries: Ocean Beach, 1 run, 2 hits, 2 errors. Mission Bay—6 runs, 8 hits, 1 error. The local nine plays again tonight, July 11, at University Heights playground, meeting the Palomar Food team, a formidable contender in the A.A.A. league.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Larson of 3932 Voltaire, who are the parents of a new daughter born June 22.

Mission Bay C.C. Announces Agenda For July Meeting

Agenda for the regular monthly meeting of the Mission Bay Chamber of Commerce to be held Monday evening, July 14, at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Ocean Beach grammar school auditorium was announced this week by Steven D. Young, president.

Bruce Robinson will be installed as new secretary of the organization, replacing Mrs. Steven D. Young, who has been temporarily filling the office. William Valentine, former secretary, resigned a few weeks ago due to pressure of his business affairs, reports President Young. The latter expressed approval of this latest appointment and appreciation of the work Robinson plans to do.

Clarence Dersch, chairman of the entertainment committee, has planned an entertainment program which will include a home talent tap dancer and singer. Senator Fred H. Kraft, who is an ex-officio member of the board of directors, has been invited to attend the meeting.

Official announcement will be made of the group's first annual Mission Bay ball, scheduled to take place August 28 at the Mission Beach ballroom. Though the ball has not yet been formerly announced, 1800 tickets had been sold by July 9, Young reports. This early success he said is most heartening to the ball committee, inasmuch as the money thus provided will be put to work in the service of the community.

Public Officials Dedicate Built-up El Carmel Point

The carnival spirit reigned at Pacific Beach this week, with the second annual Fiesta being inaugurated Wednesday by the dedication of El Carmel Point in Mission Bay by Vice Mayor Gerald Crary. A boat parade, headed by city, county, state and military officials in an amphibious speed boat, across Mission Bay from the Causeway to El Carmel Point preceded the dedication.

"In cutting this ribbon of flags, I hereby dedicate this point not only to the people of San Diego county but to the people from faraway places who will want to make this their aquatic playground of tomorrow," Crary said.

Brief talks were made by other officials including Fred Rennek, president of the Fiesta Days celebration; Leo Calland, city director of recreation; James Robbins and Dean Howell, county supervisors; E. T. Price, president of San Diego Chamber of Commerce and Capt. Frank Luckel of Ocean Beach, Assemblyman from the local district.

The Fiesta program for today includes a yacht regatta at 2 p.m. followed by a surf casting competition, a golf driving contest from 5 to 6:30 p.m. at Moore's driving range, Highway 101 and Balboa St., a community beach party at 6:30 p.m. and a square dance contest at 8 p.m. at Fiesta Center. The "Whiskerino" awards will be made at 9 at Fiesta Center.

On Saturday, the "Miss San Diego" Beauty pageant will be held at the Mission Beach ballroom, open to the public. The 30-odd contestants for "Miss San Diego" will show their charm and talent routines. The crowning of "Miss San Diego" is scheduled for Sunday at 2, followed at 3 by the championship AAU rough water swim from Crystal Pier.

Miss Beverly Beeler is currently the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Beeler, of 4877 Muir Ave. She arrived in Ocean Beach June 29 to spend a short vacation with the couple, and expects to return to her home in San Francisco July 20.

Two other guests at the Beeler home, Mrs. Beeler's niece, Mrs. Carol Vanderverter, and her daughter Karen, will leave Sunday for their home in Washington, D. C.

MARY LILLIAN WINTER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Winter of 1682 Bacon St., who is celebrating her first birthday today, is pictured wearing a dress made 81-years ago for her maternal great-grandmother. The dress is still in excellent condition, evidencing the skill with which it was hand-sewn and the fine cloth used in the making. The eyelet embroidery around the neck and sleeves is especially intricate. Mrs. Mary Cannon Young, the great-grandmother who first wore the dress, is still living in Salt Lake City, where the baby's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Needham, also live. The paternal grandmother, Mrs. A. E. Winter, lives in Orange, Calif.

Legion Auxiliary Selects Officers For Ensuing Term

(By MYRTLE A. ORRICK)

Clyde A. Wright, Unit 433, American Legion Auxiliary, July 8, elected officers for the coming term in accordance with the change in the Unit by-laws. The newly elected officers will assume their duties on the third Thursday in July. The officers named are Florence Allen, president; Winifred Dahlheim, first vice president; Barbara Boyce, second vice president; Della Hodges, secretary-treasurer; JoAnne Duvall, sergeant-at-arms; Alpha Rowe, executive woman.

Delegates to convention this year will be the in-coming and the out-going presidents, Florence Allen and Mary Fold, and as the increase in membership allows a third delegate this year, Myrtle Orrick, a past president, also was elected. The alternates are Gordon Loy, Alpha Rowe and Della Hodges.

Installation of officers will be held July 17 at 8 o'clock in the Woman's clubhouse, (formals optional). Friends of the American Legion Unit are invited. Winifred Dahlheim is chairman of the refreshment committee, with Dawn Woodruff and Della Hodges as her aids.

District meeting is to be held at the San Diego Hotel on July 27 at 10 o'clock.

The ladies joined the men to hear an enthusiastic report on the Legions' Boys' State program, given by Bob Cornett from Point Loma High. Bob was sponsored by the local Post and Lion's club this year.

Following adjournment the membership held a weiner bake, and moonlight beach party at the foot of Muir Ave.

Local Officer Wins Navy Literary Award

Lt. (jg) Arnold S. Lott, of 4648 Larkspur St., was recently awarded first prize in the nationwide Navy literary contest, entitling him to attend the Broad Leaf Writers Conference in Middlebury, Vt. this August, with expenses paid by the Navy. The winning literary work was "Eric the Seagull," a humorous book-length poem.

Lt. Lott left Saturday for Seattle, where he will join his ship, the LST 1146, which is on maneuvers in north Pacific waters but which is assigned to the local harbor. Lt. and Mrs. Lott and their two children, Marilyn and Lowell, arrived in Ocean Beach July 1, after being stationed at Bainbridge, Md., for the past two years. They are long-time residents of Ocean Beach and own their Larkspur St. home. Lt. Lott expects to go to Washington, D. C. in August and from there to Vermont.

Beach Facilities This Season Not Likely, C.C. Told

COMMITTEE REPORTS AT JULY MEETING; VOTE 10-4 FOR PARALLEL PARKING

Scant hope for new facilities this season for users of the local beach was held out by city officials, a special directors' committee reported Monday night to the July membership meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, held at the Woman's clubhouse. Milton Lancaster, chairman, was the main speaker for the committee. Dick Hilmen, program chairman, presided over the discussion.

Lancaster reported that the committee had contacted both Leo Calland, city recreation director, and Don Wynn, city director of aquatics. Lancaster quoted Wynn as estimating it would take $500 to remodel the building now on city property at the foot of Newport Ave. and that same was "too small anyway for the purpose suggested." Wynn was quoted as saying, however, that he would see if other surplus buildings are available and that he would let the committee know.

In the main, however, the committee received the impression that the city officials feel that it is too late to do anything much about the matter this year. Suggestion was made to the committee, though, that they "keep after it" and urged that the necessary city funds for such improvement be included in next year's budget.

Frank McElwee, chairman of the Chamber's regular Beach Improvement committee, said in his opinion the city should either improve its property at the foot of Newport, covering 155x250 feet, or sell same to private interests who will construct a modern beach hotel. He also suggested that the Chamber employ an architect to draw up a plan for improving this city property which is now just an eyesore, he said.

Harry Masters of the special committee suggested that the Chamber contact every Ocean Beach organization in order to obtain a general committee, representing these groups, to keep after the city officials until the much needed facilities are installed for users of the local beach.

Vote On Parking Question

Following a discussion on the Newport Ave. parking question a straw vote was taken. Ten voted for parallel parking and four for the present system of diagonal parking. Since those present were almost entirely business men, the sentiment again was expressed that the wishes of the customers of the local stores should be obtained. To help in the matter The News offered to run a questionnaire in today's issue. This will be found on the front page, and every Ocean Beach customer who drives to the local business district is urged to vote and return or mail the ballot to The News office, 1920 Bacon St.

Text of Bill For Ocean Beach Jetty Comes From Luckel

Text of the bill, now a state law, was received by The News this week from Capt. Frank Luckel, assemblyman, and is worded as follows:

An act to provide for works for development and protection of the beach at Ocean Beach and providing for the continued availability thereof of funds present-ly available under agreement pursuant to Chapter 942, Statutes of 1941.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The State Park Commission of California, the City of San Diego, and the Department of Public Works of the State of California having entered into an agreement, pursuant to authority of Chapter 942, Statutes of 1941, for the construction of works for the development and protection of the beach at Ocean

125 Local Youths Learn
An estimated 75 girls and 50 boys of Ocean Beach were judged to be among the 4,850 youngsters who received free instruction in swimming and water safety during the city recreation department's "Learn to Swim" program held at the Mission Beach plunge June 23 to July 3.

Of the 252 who actually learned to swim and passed their beginner's test, approximately 75 were said to be Ocean Beach children. The program offered free swimming lessons by five of the recreation department's qualified instructors. Tony Mitchell was in charge as director of the program.

Former Russian Official Describes Events Which Caused Him to Quit Communism

(Book Review By Eileen King)

Victor Kravchenko's controversial autobiography, entitled "Chose Freedom" is stimulating, thought-provoking reading. Like other autobiographers, Mr. Kravchenko has a human tendency to overlook or excuse his own inadequacies in what could only be termed a totally inadequate career for a man of such evident talent and even brilliance, but this book has warmth and occasional bursts of fiery spirit, reflections of the man himself which no totalitarian regimentation could dim.

He begins the story with a flash-back device reminiscent of some of the better Hollywood offerings, detailing first his sudden resignation from the Communist party, in which he occupied a position of some importance as a member of the Purchasing Committee in Washington to complete negotiations. After some weeks of conscientious work, about which he claims he received no complaints from his government, he suddenly resigned. Now, one just doesn't play that way with the Russian government, and his disappearance was a picnic for newsmen, but not quite so much fun for Kravchenko.

With this introduction to his life, starting backwards, you might say, he writes his story, which is designed, obviously, to explain to the still-free world, the reasons behind this courageous gesture, by which he not only resigned his job and his party membership, but also his native country, his family, home, friends, and all the other everyday factors that make up the life of an ordinary person. He recalls his childhood, through which fleeting shadows of his father's precarious existence as a Bolshevik flickered briefly; the Revolution, and what it meant to him and his family in terms of hunger and worry and danger; his schooling at government expense, in which he was trained for his career in metallurgy; his steady rise in his profession from little jobs to bigger jobs to a spot in the Kremlin.

These are the circumstances about which his book revolves, the childhood, school years, professional progress of any individual. But they are but a web, he insists, which traps him and chains him to a damning system in which there is no good, but only evil, hate, suspicion and intrigue. He cites convincing examples of Soviet inefficiency, cruelty, stupidity, and distrust, and victoriously condemns it.

And then his hope. As his hate and fear of the system grew from year to year, from promotion to promotion, from one assignment to the next, and as he himself grew more settled in it, more ignorant than ever of the outside world, more sheltered in the peculiar ideology of Communism, he watched himself grow older with no escape in sight. Then like a gift of Providence he was sent to the United States for completion of lend-lease negotiations. The perfect opportunity presented itself, and he took it. That's really all there is to the story, but it makes almost five-hundred pages of hard-to-put-down political commentary.

Police Treat 18 Of Traffic Patrol To Palomar Trip

In keeping with its reputation as a pal to boys, (many of whom aspire to join its ranks), the city police department last week rewarded the 18 graduating Junior traffic patrol boys of Ocean Beach Elementary school with a five-day camping vacation at Mount Palomar.

The boys' time was filled with a full program of activities, what with movies, hikes, athletics of all kinds, and campfires, to the extent that the eight patrolmen who accompanied them found themselves hard put to keep up with their seemingly tireless charges.

Everything but their blankets was provided for the youngsters. They were transported to the campsite in a bus, leaving Ocean Beach June 30 and returning July 4.

The reward was offered to the boys in appreciation of their faithful service as traffic patrolmen at school crossings, and only those boys who are completing their services to the community as such were eligible. Boys who are continuing in school, with the opportunity to serve further with the patrol were ineligible, as were boys who were being graduated to other schools which have traffic patrols.

The Junior Traffic Patrol of San Diego has completed its eleventh successful year in traffic control at school crossings. Letters were sent to the parents of the graduating patrolmen. As an added safety feature, a second letter was sent to the parents of first grade students. Both letters not only carried a message of commendation, but also a plea for safety mindedness in the future.

Ocean Beach boys who earned and received the trip to Mt. Palomar were: Peter Abbey, Buddy Aubrey, Joe Campbell, Paul Comito, William Conklin, Orvin Doken, Jack Dyer, Russell Fellows, James Harress, Freddie Holmes, Mike Horvath, Richard Lilley, Eugene Raimo, Howard Runk, Willis Smith, Doug Smith, Jimmy Sutherland and Bob Williams. All of these boys were graduates this year of Ocean Beach Elementary school.

After six years of absence from the beach, (during which time he served with Uncle Sam), it's great to be able to welcome back into our midst Mr. and Mrs. J. Frazier, who have returned to their home at 4654 Cape May to live permanently.

Padres Tangle With Beavers In Twin Bill Tonight At Lane

Manager "Rip" Collins' San Diego Padres and Portland's Lucky Beavers square off on the Lane Field diamond Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. in the second double-header of the week. A single night game will be played Saturday at 8:15 p.m. while Sunday's twin bill begins at 1:30 p.m.

Next week the sassy Sacramento Solons invade Padreville for a seven game series. San Diego and Sacramento waged a terrific battle in the Capital City last week, splitting an eight game mix. Local fans are looking forward to a hotly contested scrap when these Coast League rivals collide in their return engagement.

Injuries continued to haunt the Padres around the keystone sack. Latest victim is Pete Coscarart who injured his shoulder in a collision on the basepaths at Sacramento. Two weeks ago Larry Lee was sidelined for at least a month with a fractured foot.

Padre hopes for this climb back to the first division were given additional strength when big Max West regained his batting eye to hit .500 for the week and blast his 17th and 18th home runs of the season. West, current PCL circuit clout leader, needs only six more to set a Padre record, the old mark of 23 being set by Ted Williams in 1937.

Another bright spot in the Padre line-up centers around Dain Clay, San Diego's sensational fly-hawk. Against Seattle and Sacramento, Clay collected 34 hits in 67 attempts for a mark of .507. Clay also ran his stolen base total to 26 to lead the league in this department.

Padre pitching also showed signs of improvement with Tom Seats posting his third straight win at Sacramento and tall Al Treichel tossing a pair of six hit triumphs.

AZURE VISTA ACTIVITIES

The Double Jay club of Azure Vista will entertain new members at a party at the community building tonight at 7:30, according to Ronnie Hunt, club president. Committees for the affair include: games—Ronnie Hunt, Wayne DeBate and Tommy Collins; entertainment—Sonya Rydberg, Juanita Parker, Raymond Brock; decoration—Paul Can-Am Wilkinson; refreshments—non, Richard Emery and Mary Patty Jones, Carole Wickham, Phyllis Jennings and Sandra Rhuebottom.

Azure Vista's "Naughty Nine" ball team was defeated 5 to 2 by the visiting team from Barnard Playground last Saturday. A return game is planned for tomorrow by Coach Orville Ball. The team will play Ocean Beach in the near future.

Rehearsals are under way for the puppet show "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" which will be presented July 25. Tuesday mornings at 10 o'clock are the regular rehearsal times. Visitors are welcome at these meetings which follow the weekly folk dance meetings.

Gloria Alvarado of 4960 Naragansett and her friend Monette Johnson of Ocean Beach spent the week of June 30 to July 6 on Catalina Island. Returning Sunday night, the girls continued their vacation fun with a jaunt to San Francisco, where they will spend another week with Gloria's brother, Price, who is a student employee of an airline in nearby San Mateo. They plan to return to Ocean Beach July 18.

Ethel Zuehlsdorf (familiar to shoppers in Virgil's as the smiling young lady at the checking counter) will be spending her two weeks' vacation right here in Ocean Beach.

MR. AND MRS. W. E. NELSON AND MR. AND MRS. W. DULL ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nelson of 4661 Coronado were co-host and hostess with Mr. and Mrs. William Dull at a patio dinner held in the Nelson home the evening of July 6.

The dinner was considerably brightened by the refreshing appearance of a charmingly original salad, arranged of spring vegetables in the likeness of a lady's hat. After dinner the guests played cards.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beardsley and Mr. and Mrs. Noel Swetland. Also dropping in on the party were the Nelsons' son and daughter-in-law of recent weeks, Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Jr. who returned that evening from Carmel.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP HOLDS FINAL MEETING OF SEASON AT FAIR

The county fair at Del Mar provides, among other things, an excellent meeting place for clubs and organizations of all kinds. The Ocean Beach Girl Scouts (Troop 127) were among the first to recognize this fact, when they held their last meeting of the season at the fairgrounds June 27, the day the fair opened. Accompanying them were Mrs. Philip W. Knight and Mrs. Ralph C. Meyers, assistant troop leaders. With a picnic lunch, the girls made a day of it, including midway attractions and some of the more serious exhibits on display. This was the last troop meeting until the school year opens again in the fall. To date, all 23 of the scouts have passed the second class tests leaving their first class rank to be attained next year.

Laird Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cooper of 4514 Osprey St., will leave today, July 11, for Oregon on a summer-long vacation. With him will go John Mathias and John Chamberlain, both of Point Loma. The boys will make the trip by car, and return in the fall for the opening of Point Loma high school, where Laird and John Chamberlain will be juniors, Mathias having been graduated this year.

Mrs. John Williamson left Saturday, July 5, for her home in Arlington, Va. after a seven weeks' visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bryant of 4574 Coronado.

TERRY CORDS CELEBRATES HIS THIRD BIRTHDAY ON JULY 10, ONE WEEK LATE

Just three years old July 3, little Terry Lee Cords caught cold at the crucial moment, delaying his birthday party until yesterday, July 10. Present to wish him well on his trudge to manhood were Ellen Keavaney 3, Judy Emerson 3, Caroline Betten-court 4, Corella Wright 2, Gary Emerson 4, Gary Pryor 3, and Sandy and Joe Moore, 3 and 4 respectively. Melissa Charles, 14, was invited to serve as co-hostess.

The group played games and ate ice cream cones and cake. The guest of honor received a miniature lawn mower, some big construction toys for his sandbox, and other gifts from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cords of 4844 Coronado.

R. S. FADDENS ATTEND DAUGHTER'S WEDDING IN EUGENE, OREGON

Mr. and Mrs. Roland S. Fadden and son, Billy, of 1801 Sunset Cliffs Blvd. left Sunday for Eugene, Ore. to attend the wedding of their daughter, Corinne, who is a student at the University of Oregon. She formerly attended Pt. Loma High school and San Diego Junior College. She is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority at the University. Following their daughter's wedding, the Faddens will drive north to Canada via Spokane, where they will visit relatives.

Plans Announced For Altar Society Fall Fashion Fete

Committees were appointed and read by the general chairman, Mrs. Martin Murphy, for their coming "Fall Fashion" fete, at the regular monthly meeting of the Sacred Heart Altar Society held Monday evening. Mrs. J. P. Miller presided in the absence of Mrs. I. A. Hegerle.

This style show will be held in Sacred Heart auditorium, Sunset Cliffs and Saratoga, on Tuesday, July 29 at 12:30. Hats will be shown by Charles and gowns by Cecile of Imig Manor. Professional models will be used. A very high class program is promised, reports Mrs. Murphy. Her announcement of the event continues as follows:

"Dessert will be served, the Style Show will follow and then bridge and '500.' There will be attractive door and table prizes. If you do not play cards, you can visit, knit, crochet or whatever is your fancy. On the planning committee with the general chairman are Mmes. John Dethier, Lawrence Holt, V. Lessing, Wm. Madigan, J. P. Daly, B. Engman, Stella Schaeffer, L. Tokar, W. Grove and M. Brogan.

"These committee heads are meeting with their sub-committees this week to perfect the details.

"Reservations should be made at once by calling Mrs. Murphy B-7451, Mrs. Hegerle B-3721 or Mrs. Holt B-3057."

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN OF SENIOR WOMEN'S CLUB MEET AT NIELSEN HOME

A group of committee chairmen of the Ocean Beach Woman's club enjoyed a luncheon at the home of the president, Mrs. B. H. Nielsen Saturday, July 5. Present were Mmes. H. F. Brady, S. M. Kyde, M. T. Lommasson, Edwin Storm, T. E. Sundberg and C. H. Woolley and the hostess. Plans for the club year were discussed. All were reported enthusiastic over the forming of a new Garden group open to all garden lovers of the community. Announcement of the date of the first meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. S. M. Kyde, will be made next week.

WM. NELSON AND BRIDE SET SAIL TO HONOLULU

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson (Mrs. Nelson was formerly Amy Webster), sailed Wednesday morning from Los Angeles harbor aboard a Matson liner for Honolulu. On the final trip of their summer-long honeymoon, the young Nelsons will spend eight weeks reveling in the sights and sounds of Hawaii before school opens at Claremont college. Mr. Nelson plans to return to school there. Married June 22, the young couple spent the first stage of their honeymoon in Carmel, returning July 6.

Homemakers Vote To send Clothing To Greek Relief

At a meeting of Christian Home makers class of Baptist church they voted Friday to send a package of clothing to a designated family in Greece in need of relief. They met at 8 p.m., July 3, at the home of Mrs. Irene Salesky of 4605 Santa Cruz Ave., with Mrs. N. B. Burt as co-hostess. The president, Mrs. J. Smidt, conducted business session. Mrs. Harriet Jensen led the singing and Mrs. Eva Bolton the devotionals. The social committee chairman reported they have a program beginning in September to help fill the treasury. The visiting committee chairman, Mrs. Minnie McDonald, congratulated members on cooperation and "hoped they might continue activity during the summer months."

Mrs. Salesky explained the procedure for sending packages to Europe. She urged all organizations, of the church or individuals to donate $10 worth. She said the donation is sent to Los Angeles to the main office where they are packed and mailed. "You may choose a box of clothing material, or food, also you may be given a name of some needy family and have it sent direct," she stated. The secretary was instructed to obtain the name of a family.

After the close of meeting the women enjoyed the July 4 fireworks display in Mission Beach, the Salesky home having a splendid view of the Mission Bay area.

Mrs. Winnie Purdy was responsible for the evening's entertainment. Games were played, after which 24 members and one guest (Mrs. Bowers of Iowa, a cousin of Mrs. Ruth Shaw) were seated at tables where the hostess served light refreshments. Colors of red, white and blue decorated the tables and also were carried out in the refreshments. Mrs. Mary Webster was presented with the birthday cake which was cut and passed to guests. Mrs. Edna Taylor was presented with an anniversary gift from her "Secret Sister."

Next meeting of the class will be with Mrs. Eva Bolton and Mrs. Alice McKenzie on August 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Brady of 4440 Del Monte, last week welcomed Mr. Brady's mother, Mrs. Walter E. Brady of Oklahoma City, Okla., who will spend the summer here.

Vincent Blaha And Miss Alice Cipra To Marry Today

By the time most of you readers are this far in your News, Alice Cipra will have become Mrs. Robert J. Blaha. The wedding was scheduled for today (Friday) at 9 a.m. to be performed in Sacred Heart church, Coronado, and solemnized by a Nuptial Mass.

Advance information disclosed that the plan is for Miss Cipra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Cipra of Coronado, to wed the Ocean Beach son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent A. Blaha of 1204 Devonshire Dr. at a formal ceremony reminiscent of pre-war days. To be given in marriage by her father, she was scheduled to wear the traditional white satin with finger-tip veil, carrying roses and lilies of the valley, and to be attended by a friend from Los Angeles, and by her sister Maralee of Coronado. Edward Panek of Ocean Beach has been chosen best man. The groom plans to be married in the uniform of the United States Army Officers' Reserve.

A wedding breakfast was slated for the occasion, to be held at the Hotel Del Coronado, and the couple to leave afterwards for a two week honeymoon in northern California and Oregon. Miss Cipra has prepared a dusty blue suit for the trip.

The bride is a recent graduate of the Dental School of the University of Southern California, and plans to practice her profession of oral hygienics. In San Diego she studied at St. Joseph's Cathedral high school.

Blaha was educated at schools in Cleveland, Ohio, and at present is also a student at U.S.C., majoring in aeronautical engineering after a wartime career as first lieutenant in the United States Army in Germany. He was discharged last year and is currently a member of the Army Reserves. Inasmuch as his studies at U.S.C. have not yet been concluded, the couple will reside in Los Angeles.

BELTS HAVE FAMILY PICNIC
The Belts of Ocean Beach enjoyed a family picnic at Mission Bay beach on the Fourth. Among the families there were the M. L. Belts, Lester Belts, Walter Belts, Thomas Medicotts, and Robert Woods, all of Ocean Beach, the Gene Chandlers of Los Angeles and the C. F. Reeves of Kansas City.

Corinne J. Fadden Weds Roy Merwin In Oregon Today

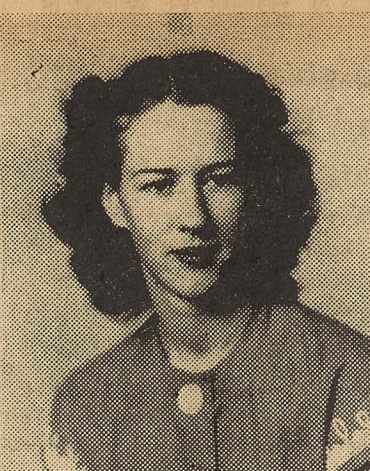

Corinne Juanella Fadden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland S. Fadden of 1801 Sunset Cliffs, today (Friday) became the bride of Roy Merwin in a simple church ceremony in Eugene, Oregon, the home of the bridegroom.

Wearing the traditionally formal white of brides since the beginning of weddings, Corinne was given in marriage by her father.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Merwin of Eugene, was educated at schools there, following which he served in the United States Army field artillery as a second lieutenant. He was a member of the armed forces for three years, part of which time he was stationed in Australia. Discharged two years ago, he has been studying at the University of Oregon since his return home.

The former Miss Fadden is a graduate of Point Loma high school and San Diego Junior college, and also attended the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Sigma Kappa sorority.

The couple will reside in Albany, Ore. inasmuch as Merwin will be engaged in business there.

MISS LYNNE SCHUBERT, well-known dancer and teacher from Chicago, who has joined the staff of the Gladys Bowen Dance Studios. She will conduct summer courses in tap, acrobatics and ballet. Miss Schubert is a member of the Chicago National Association of Dancing Masters.

SQUARE DANCE WILL BE HELD ON SATURDAY NIGHT

A hot time in the old town? It could be, for the Community Center will stage another of its popular square dances Saturday night from 8 to 11 o'clock. Instruction will be offered to those who feel a bit inept, and soft drinks are sold for those who really take their dancing hard and seriously.

W.S.C.S. Will Have Two Guest Speakers At July 17 Meeting

"Pertinent Legislation" will be the topic of a talk by Mrs. Frank F. Swan, addressed to the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Point Loma Methodist church, at their regular monthly meeting to be held Thursday, July 17, at 12 noon at the church.

Also on the program will be Mrs. E. F. Beaumont of Pacific Beach. She and her husband recently returned from Palestine, where they spent 35 years on duty as missionaries. She will speak of their life there, and also will present for sale some of the etchings Mr. Beaumont has made.

Members of the Las Amigas Circle will serve as hostesses at the luncheon which customarily precedes the meetings. Mrs. Merle Brady, president of the society, will preside over a brief business session.

Mrs. Ben Parker, program chairman, will introduce the guest speakers and the devotional leader, Mrs. Frank Felt.

A nursery for the young children of the ladies will be provided, and everyone interested is invited to attend this program whether members of the group or not, announces Mrs. Mildred Strand, publicity chairman.

W. A. WOODWARD OBSERVES 89TH BIRTHDAY TODAY

W. A. Woodward of 1675 Bacon St. is celebrating his 89th birthday today (Friday). He reports that he will probably mark the event by working in his garden, on the corner of Bacon and Santa Cruz, "as usual." Mr. Woodward came to Ocean Beach in 1926, having retired as owner and director of a business school in Denver. Besides his gardening, Mr. Woodward spends a lot of time reading the Bible; in fact, he came to California "to leave the business world and have more time to read the Bible." Mr. and Mrs. Woodward celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary this year.

MRS. E. R. SHAW HOSTESS TO LOS ANGELES PEOPLE

Mrs. E. R. Shaw had Miss Jean Bowers of Richmond as her holiday weekend guest. Miss Bowers is a cousin of Mrs. Shaw and is at present attending summer school at U.S.C. She returned to Los Angeles Sunday evening. Miss Bowers also visited Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lowmes and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Woodley.

Other guests at the Shaw home were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Williams and son Bobby of Los Angeles. Mrs. Williams is Mrs. Shaw's sister. The Williams were in Ocean Beach Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Shaw reports that her husband writes that he and Mr. Burdine are having a fine vacation at Mammoth Lakes, although the weather there is described as "plenty cold."

ST. ANNE'S CIRCLE GIVES LUNCHEON FOR 2 WOMEN WHO LEAVE FOR MANILA

St. Anne's Circle of Trinity Episcopal church entertained Mrs. Mim Phillipbar and her mother Mrs. Fay at a farewell luncheon on Wednesday, July 2 at 12:30. A Chinese luncheon of chop suey and rice was served. The centerpiece on the decorated tables was a replica of a ship, made of cake, complete with smoke stacks, guard rail and guns. Both Mrs. Phillipbar and her mother left here Sunday, July 6, for San Francisco and left there July 10 for Manila where they will join Mrs. Phillipbar's husband. He is stationed on duty there.

YOUNG RELATIVES OF MRS. BEARDSLEY LEAVE FOR ORE.

Donna Louise and Ronald Palmer, young niece and nephew of Mrs. Joe Beardsley, left Monday for Portland, where they will spend the summer months at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Palmer. Donna Louise has been living at the Beardsley home, 1818 Sunset Cliffs Blvd., during the past school year and attending Dana Junior High School. She will return to Ocean Beach later in the summer and will enter Dana again this fall. Mrs. Beardsley honored the young Palmers at a beach party Thursday evening, to which eight of their friends were invited.

Attendance At Fair Breaks All Records

With all attendance records shattered for its 11 nights and 10 days stand, the 1947 San Diego County Fair—hailed as the most successful ever staged in this area—today had passed into history.

Some 234,938 persons visited the colorful Del Mar fairgrounds during the recent show, which came to a brilliant conclusion last Sunday night. Last year's attendance was 166,188. The increase of 68,750 is a positive indication that this summer's exposition has made tremendous strides, zooming the San Diego Fair into the top bracket throughout the state.

This deserving patronage was attributed to the wealth of exhibits shown by San Diego County residents, as well as the top-flight entertainment attractions presented by the Fair management.

Paul T. Mannen, president of the 22nd District Agricultural Association, operators of the Fair was lavish in his praise of all who worked to make the Fair such an outstanding success.

"It is highly gratifying to see our fondest hopes realized in making this year's Fair one that will long be remembered," he said. "I cannot thank enough the many exhibitors, the hard-working staff, the newspapers and radio stations and all those who contributed their time and effort to achieving our purpose in presenting a Fair that won such overwhelming approval."

Mr. Mannen's sentiments were echoed by E. O. Hulick, secretary-manager of the Fair.

"The whole-hearted cooperation of San Diego City and County citizens, many thousands of them, made this year's Fair the great show it was," Hulick said. "I would personally like to thank all who made it possible. Receiving such unstinting support from everyone clearly defines our purpose in bending every effort to make the 1948 Fair an even greater show."

DR. WILHOITS ON TRIP

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilhoit left Saturday for a two week's vacation at their Delta, Colo. ranch. Accompanying them were Dr. Wilhoit's mother, Mrs. Jennie Wilhoit, his sister, Mrs. Della Marshall, and his son, Richard Wilhoit. Dr. Wilhoit's office will remain open during his absence, with Dr. Blythe Pahl, who has been associated with Dr. Wilhoit since June 15, carrying on the practice.

Friends of Jim Bowker, manager of the Home Appliance Store, were pleased to see him back on Newport Avenue this week after his serious illness. Mr. Bowker reports that he will soon be well enough to get back into active management of his store.

Capt. and Mrs. F. M. Ingersoll (U.S.N.) have moved to Ocean Beach from Norfolk, Va., and are now making their home at 4504 Narragansett Ave.

NUMEROUS OCEAN BEACH FOLKS SEEN AT COUNTY FAIR HELD LAST WEEK

Among the many Ocean Beach residents seen at the county fair at Del Mar last week were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hammond and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Moss, Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Harrington, Mrs. Joe Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Hartvigsen, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hume, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mishler, Donna Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sansterre, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ebright, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Plummer, Mr. and Mrs. J. LeRoy Moser, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. George Radovich and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Radovich.

Mrs. Jenny Corbett Bennett, a former resident of the Beach who moved to San Diego some time ago, is currently visiting her friends the Paul Hendricks of the Newport Hotel.

Comdr. and Mrs. Clyde Lovelace of 4306 Newport Ave. entertained at a buffet supper in their patio Friday evening, July 4. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Lovelace and family, Donald Lovelace and his fiancée, Joan Allen, Mrs. Ralph E. Butterfield and Ralph Jr., David, Linda and Danny Butterfield, all of La Jolla, Mrs. Butterfield Young of Pasadena and Chase Allen.

A. E. Mantey Called To Head Bethany
Lutheran School

A. E. Mantey, principal of St. John's Lutheran school of Charter Oak, Iowa, has accepted a call of Bethany Lutheran school to serve as principal of Bethany Lutheran school and director of music at the church. Mr. Mantey having served for fifteen years as principal at St. John's comes well qualified to take up his various duties at Bethany Lutheran, reports the Rev. Martin Lankow. Mr. and Mrs. Mantey will arrive in Ocean Beach about the middle of August.

Vacation Bible school at Bethany Lutheran is going into its last week at Bethany school. Those helping to conduct the sessions are Mrs. Margaret Wenzel, Mrs. Merle Porter, Mrs. M. Lankow, Mrs. K. Kerns, Mary Dee Clark and Donna Mae Riese.

"No Privacy!" will be the Sunday morning sermon subject of the Rev. Martin Lankow at both the eight and the 10:45 services. Sunday School begins at 9:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sierts of Chicago arrived Friday for a visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. P. O. Jensen, 4672 Green St.

MISS JEAN RITTENHOUSE PAINTS PORTRAITS AT SAN DIEGO COUNTY FAIR

Miss Jean Rittenhouse of 4733 Voltaire, whose hobby is art, took opportunity last week to paint some interesting subjects. Ensclosed in the art pavilion of the San Diego Art Guild's "Art Mart," she painted several of the fair-goers who milled around the exhibits. Of particular interest to her, she said, was a lovely red-haired girl who worked at a nearby exhibit. On her lunch hour the girl posed for the artist, and Miss Rittenhouse reports that she painted her against the colorful background of the fair, and was well pleased with the result. She has forgotten the young lady's name, unfortunately, so News readers will have to wonder along with her just who the girl was.

A member of the San Diego Art Guild, Miss Rittenhouse has been painting for several years, and says that a life sized head painted in oils on a 10" by 12" canvas requires her about two hours to complete. In art circles, this is considered rapid painting.

Dorothy Bell is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert Bell of 4835 W. Pt. Loma, on her vacation from nursing school in Los Angeles. She arrived just in time to join the family fun, for her mother is also hostess to Chief Warrant Officer and Mrs. Louis Miller of Buford, S. C.

Youth Program In Ocean Beach Needs
Volunteer Workers

The Volunteer Bureau of the San Diego Community Welfare Council this week asked the News to announce that there is an urgent need for volunteer workers in the city's youth recreation program during the summer months. Especially needed are group leaders, athletic directors, craft teachers, children's caretakers, drivers, day camp supervisors, public relations chairmen and many others. "Every hour volunteered will make San Diego a better city and its children happier," reports Ann Abel, publicity chairman. The volunteers will work with city recreation directors to make the vacation months of the school children of Ocean Beach more worthwhile, entertaining and wholesome. Volunteers are asked to put in a half day a week, if possible. Those who are able to donate time only after working hours may help out during the evening hours. Anyone interested in participating in this program is urged to contact the Volunteer Bureau at 645 A Street, or call them at M-1055.

Anna Palmer, formerly of Ocean Beach, has an exhibit of her oil painting, both landscapes and seascapes, on display at the art gallery annex of the La Jolla Public Library on Girard Ave.

This is the temporary world-wide pattern of our new post-war Army. Under every far-flung American flag, Army men are working, teaching, protecting. Whatever the surroundings they are eating plenty of good American food and playing at the sports they've always loved.

Pattern for peace

Yes—these men fit the pattern. You don't see their names in the headlines. You see only the day-to-day threats to international security which the mere existence of these well-equipped, well-trained men helps to dispel. For your new Regular Army is a team—so co-ordinated and so streamlined that every man's job counts heavily toward our vital post-war goals here and abroad.

Every American citizen can be proud that these goals are being attained with a minimum number of men.

This efficiency stems from an all-out spirit of purpose. Today, Regular Army men know where they're going. They are soundly indoctrinated in our commitments in these four corners of the earth. They know that much of the permanent success of world peace depends upon their training, tact and firmness.

While thousands are creating good-will and establishing justice abroad, many thousands more are perfecting new equipment and techniques at home. To mention only a few—they've developed a rocket take-off device which enables a B-29 to use 700-foot runways—instead of those 3000 feet and longer. The Chemical Corps has adapted flame throwers to runway ice melters, surplus liquid fire materials to pure soap, smoke generators to orchard crop protectors. These developments—and more—are finding their way into civilian industry and agriculture.

The Regular Army served the nation and mankind victoriously in the war just past. It is serving now to make a bright new tomorrow a better today for everybody.

J. Hooper; "Teach Yourself to Write," by Elliot Blackiston; "Best Plays of the Modern American Theater," edited by John Gassner; "Conservation in the United States," by A. F. Gustafson; "A Manual of Southwestern Desert Trees and Shrubs," by L. D. Benson; "Electrical Engineering," by E. E. Kimberly; "Three White Horses," by Fingal Rosenquist; "Forty Minute Plays from Shakespeare," "You Must Go to Mexico," by Cecil Carnes; "Life and Fashion in America, 1650-1900," by Paul McPharlin; "Cities of America," by G. S. Perry; and "Competitive Debate," by G. M. Musgrave.

 Beach, San Diego, California and subsequently the Congress of the United States, by act approved July 24, 1946, Public, Numbered 525, Seventy-ninth Congress, Second Session, having adopted and authorized a work of improvement on San Diego River and Mission Bay, San Diego County, California in accordance with the report of the Chief of Engineers, dated May 8, 1946, it is found that said federal project embraces within its scope the works and objectives of said state project. Therefore, said commission, city, and department are authorized to enter into such supplemental, amendatory, and additional agreements with the United States or any of its agencies as may be necessary to secure federal participation and cooperation in said works for development and protection of the beach at Ocean Beach, including construction of said works by the United States or any of its agencies.

Sec. 2. Funds presently encumbered and on deposit in the State Treasury under the agreement between said commission, city, and department for said work of development and protection of the beach at Ocean Beach shall be available for expenditure and for payments to the United States or any of its agencies on account of performance of said work pursuant to agreement therefor as may be hereafter entered into by said parties. Those funds and the money made available by the City of San Diego pursuant to this act may be advanced to any federal agency for the construction of works, pursuant to agreement therefor as provided in Section 1.

POETRY FROM JAPAN DEPT.

The following original poem by Pvt. John C. Cook of Ocean Beach, who is at present serving with Company B, 519th Military Police Battalion, in Japan, is published by request:

The Military Police Will Get You
 Take off those loafers, Sergeant.
 Salute that silver bar.
 Watch the lights when crossing.
 Beware the dread "D.R."
 Do not abuse the conquered.
 Respect the women, too;
 And always wear your dogtags
 (Of course, you always do!)
 "Off Limits" means off limits,
 And nothing else my friend—
 "No Parking" means no parking.
 They'll get you in the end.
 G.I.'s are likely targets,
 And officers fair game;
 You'd better keep your nose clean.
 Still—they'll get you just the same!

OBERGS RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Oberg and daughter, Diane, of 4605 Saratoga Ave., returned Wednesday, July 2, from a week's vacation trip to Sequoia National Park, San Francisco, and Mill Valley, which is Mr. Oberg's former home town. They also stopped at the Redwoods, Tulare, and other points of interest. They returned with their car's rear compartment filled with colorful flagstones for their patio.

John "Dad" Clarke, of 4761 Niagara Ave., celebrated his 82nd birthday Monday, July 7. He reports he "enjoyed himself kind of quietly."

Mrs. F. A. Brown of 4244 Naragansett Ave. returned recently from Arkansas City, Kansas, where she visited her niece and family.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Point Loma Light makes national publication!

Yes folks, there's nothing slow about the Light. Just five months after our first edition left the presses we find none other than the popular weekly "The New Yorker" in its June 14 issue

Although the reprint was in a facetious vein, we want to thank Mrs. Edna Madruga, who submitted the item, and Mrs. Muriel Hebner, who blew her candles, for giving us this opportunity for nationwide advertisement.

 anticipation of what lay ahead was much the larger feeling. I wandered some more in the Calvado (historic museum and was so fascinated by Napoleon's death mask that I didn't even hear the closing gong. It irked the little lady, who had her hat on ready to go home to remind me that I must leave. I had coffee and doughnuts in the famous French market shop, then took a ride on the Algiers ferry, at the foot of Canal Street, across the Mississippi. It was sunset when I viewed the city from the top of one of the taller buildings, and dark by the time I phoned the Croneys's and found their home at their directions. They welcomed me with open arms; he, the most enthusiastic man for his years that I've ever met, she a rosy, chubby, understanding woman. I met their friends and tried three special French bikes and lightweight English. As I had hoped, the Croneys insisted I stay with them Thursday night. In the morning I still was amazed at the bubbling love of life in this middle-aged man. He surpassed many a young fellow I've met, in vigor. The Croneys were not satisfied with giving me their sincere friendship. They saw how bad my tires were and gave me a spare one. They learned I'd lost my air pump with my other bike and gave me one of theirs. Still not satisfied, Mrs. Croney said, "Jim give her some money too!" He took out a five dollar bill, wrote "God Bless You" on it, and handed it to me. Of course I protested and tried to get out the door, but they looked so hurt I ended by taking it and getting all choked up with wonder at such people. Mr. Croney rode about a mile with me down the highway, then reluctantly turned back. I know he would have given a lot to have come with me!

Why does God bless me so immeasurably!

Love, Norma

HOUR OF DECISION

Public opinion has been slow in taking on the momentous problem involving our relations with Greece and Turkey—and Soviet Russia.

The unexpected suddenness of the Greek crisis stunned the Nation. The President's request for financial and military aid to the Greeks and Turks called for a radical change in American foreign policy—a change that would bring us squarely into opposition with the aggressive and expansionist aims of the Kremlin.

Little wonder then that public opinion has not as yet caught up with the swift march of events and their full significance as to the future.

It is already clear however, that the American people do not want to substitute an American imperialism in Greece for the old British imperialism. Nor do they want to be responsible for maintaining the royalist regime which, even if less offensive than a communist dictatorship, is still a corrupt and unpopular government.

And on one further point there seems to be a general agreement: the United Nations must not be by-passed on this matter. Temporary assistance to Greece and Turkey may be all right, but only as a means of keeping them afloat on the turbulent political waters until the UN can take over.

If American efforts through the UN to prevent Soviet domination over them should be blocked by the Russians there would then be greater moral justification for direct support of these countries.

Above all, the American people realize that they cannot be indifferent to the march of communism now as they were to the march of Nazism a few short years ago. But they must not assume the fatalistic attitude that by acting to stem the spread of that totalitarian ideology they will have to fight Russians sooner or later. On the contrary, firmness now should help to make armed conflict unnecessary 15 to 20 years from now.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Murphy of 3749 Narragansett Ave celebrated their 22nd wedding anniversary Sunday, July 6. The Murphys marked the occasion by taking in the county fair at Del Mar.

Lynda Sue, 24-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Crawford of 4877 Niagara Ave., was christened at services Sunday in the Hillcrest Mormon Church.
She was christened by her maternal grandfather, W. W. Dickerson of National City.

Mr. and Mrs. Massey Horton of 4405 Niagara, entertained on the Fourth. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. M. Disney of San Diego and their son Jimmy and Dr. and Mrs. John S. Martin of Ocean Beach. Later in the day the Hortons teed off for a round of golf.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Batt and daughter, Shirley of 4747 Niagara have just returned from a five weeks motor trip through the scenic mountains of Colorado and Yellowstone Park. While in Colorado they visited relatives and friends whom they hadn't seen in many years. Among their many stops were the Grand Canyon and Lake Tahoe. Mr. Batt reports the fishing was excellent all the way.

The News extends a welcome this week to Mr. and Mrs. K.
R. Duee, late of Long Island, N.
Y., who have bought a residence at 4445 Newport Ave. and settled down to make Ocean Beach their home. Weary of the crowds and noise and dirt of the "Big Town," the Duees arrived in Ocean Beach about the first of July, and plan to live here permanently.

PUBLICITY NOTE TO THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE:
Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Oswald of Indianapolis, Ind., were so taken with the delightful climate and charming homesites which Ocean Beach affords, that after their visit here in March, they returned to Indiana, made their arrangements, and are planning to become permanent residents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shaw of 4483 Pt. Loma Ave. are currently host and hostess to their daughter-in-law and grandchild, Mrs.
Richard Shaw and her four months old baby, who have come to spend some time with the elder Shaws while Richard is attending summer extension classes at the University of California, at Pacific Grove. Inasmuch as the younger Shaws have been living in Berkeley for some time, Mrs.
Shaw will also welcome the opportunity to visit with her mother, Mrs. Lessie Banfill, who lives at 4881 Niagara.

The Steven D. Youngs entertained friends in their home at 4875 Coronado Sunday. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. W.
Pyne of San Diego and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brown of Los Angeles. The Pynes have made arrangements to move to Ocean Beach next week as permanent residents and the Browns also have been considering a move to Ocean Beach. All this was preceded by a grunion hunt, (very successful — for the grunion) which the Youngs enjoyed Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Gustafson and Mr. and Mrs. John B.
Clark and young son, Daryl of Ocean Beach returned recently from a trip through the middle west, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gustafson, parents of Kenneth, in Red Oak, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Nerth, service friends of the Clarks in Centralia, Ill. Enroute home they stopped in Yellowstone National Park, where they met Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Batt and Shirley, who were vacationing there. In spite of the floods and the sand storms, they reported a grand trip. Mr.
and Mrs. Batt are the parents of Mrs. Gustafson and Mrs. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bumbaugh of 2353 Seaside celebrated the Fourth in grand style with a dinner party followed by dancing and refreshments served in the patio. Dinner guests at the affair included Miss Lorraine Jordan,
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Um-laus and Lewis Dittler and his son Gene Dittler. They were joined later by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dryden, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Terrela and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rhile. These home festivities rounded out a full day of celebration, which also included a beach party for the social Bumbaughs.

SHORT STORY

Best Insurance
By HENRY SUTER

JONATHAN LANGDON waited patiently behind the diamond counter in McLaughlin's jewelry store. He was one of the store's oldest clerks, quiet, dependable, efficient. He was pondering over something this morning and his fellow clerk, Philip Smart, in charge of the watch repair section, speedily observed it. "I'm wondering about the old man," began Langdon. "For the life of me I don't see why he had to take out theft insurance. We've managed without it all the years I've been here and nothing has been taken yet. Burglar insurance, of course. But why spend money to protect yourself against theft out of the store when he must realize what a smart bunch he has toiling for him? Why couldn't he put that money to better use by slipping me the raise I asked for?" "I guess it was that glib insurance salesman he fell for," replied Philip.

"Sure enough, still I think the old man is wasting good money—" The interruption was caused by the entrance of a customer. This was a portly, middle aged gentleman, immaculately dressed, who would have made an impression anywhere. Langdon greeted him with his most gracious smile.

"Why, it's nothing but a phoney," he cried.

"I want something in a two carat solitaire, the very best you have in the place. It is for my daughter, and I want it as a graduation present!"

Langdon hurried to the safe and brought out a tray of sparkling beauties. Mr. Blake gazed upon them carefully one by one and finally selected one.

Langdon went back and put the rest of the tray of rings in the safe. "Just let me run up to the hotel and get my check book. You keep this stone out till I get back."

Ten, 15, then 20 minutes lapsed and the customer had not returned to complete his purchase.

Just then the door of McLaughlin's office opened.

"Well, Jonathan," he began, "I presume you still think we do not need any insurance and that I should use that part of our budget towards giving you a raise?"

"Well, yes, I do think so really. You know my sales have almost doubled in the last year."

"That is true, Jonathan, and I appreciate it. Yet you must consider that in selling diamonds, the store is taking big chances. I don't mean in a hold-up or a burglary. But, just suppose some smooth artist came in here and got away with a valuable diamond."

"Oh! but they couldn't do that with me," returned Langdon promptly. "I've been here 10 years and no crook has ever gotten away with it, yet."

"That's what you think," smiled McLaughlin. "Now take that last customer. I watched everything from the start. You, of course, assume that everyone who comes in here is just as honest as you. That is why you left him standing there with a valuable diamond in his possession while you turned your back and put the rest of the tray in the safe. In the minute you were gone, he substituted a phoney diamond and walked right out with the genuine diamond."

"So you saw the whole thing, and let him get away with it! I don't understand..."

"You can come in now, Blake!" called McLaughlin.

"Meet Mr. Blake, of the Dependable Insurance System," said the smiling McLaughlin.

"Sorry we had to make you the guinea pig, Buddy," Blake began, as he took a sparkling solitaire out of his pocket and placed it upon the desk. "But I just had to convince your boss here how essential it is to have the insurance."

"Take a look at that diamond on your desk, Mr. McLaughlin," said Langdon calmly.

"Why, it's nothing but a phoney," he cried.

"Sure," remarked Langdon quietly. "You don't suppose I'd leave diamonds around for strangers to pick up, do you? I made the switch before I put the tray away in the safe. Now, Mr. McLaughlin, do I get my raise or don't I?"

NEWS IN BRIEF

Mrs. Donald Rasmosan (the former Christine Campbell) and her daughter Faye Lynn arrived July 3 for a visit with Mrs. Rasmosan's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dewees of 4631 Pescadero.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nance returned this week to their home at 4646 Bermuda from a three weeks' vacation in northern California, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hensler, now living in Annapolis, Calif. The Henslers are former residents of Ocean Beach.

Miss Loretta Jean Neujahr of Los Angeles arrived in Ocean Beach July 6 for a three weeks' visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blain of 4393 Saratoga. Miss Neujahr is also the grandniece of Mrs. Katherine Riggs and Mrs. Anna Neujahr, both of Ocean Beach.

"VIRGIL'S VIEWS"

Want to know where you can have more fun than anywhere in town? No, this hasn't turned into an amusement column, at least not in a change of sponsors, but Virgil is putting on quite an amusement stunt at his marker.

Not only do his customers have the fun of participating in a drawing every Saturday night, but now the store is full of guessing contests, too. For instance... Have you seen that great big beautiful bologna at the meat counter? That massive mound of meat was made special for Virgil 'way up in San Francisco just so he could bring it down here and give all you would-be meat salesmen a chance to try your luck. Supposing you want a pound of bologna. All you have to do is cut off a hunk from that mammoth one—a hunk that you think will weigh a pound. If it comes within two ounces of that pound, you get it free (the pound that is, what would you do with that enormous hunk, anyway?) But you must keep your thumb off the scale when weighing your slice. That's a rule! Even if you go far astray from what you intended to cut, you only have to pay 39c a pound. So what can you lose?

And there are big prizes for you who like to guess at quantities. Seems Virgil has purchased a whole carload of Swift's products, and so he is featuring, this week, two great names in food, Swift's and Virgil's. In order to do this properly, he's got stacks and stacks of merchandise throughout his store. Now where you come in, is that you try to guess how many cans will be in these various stacks, at 6 p.m. Saturday, and whoever comes closest wins. And here's a little inside dope, but don't let this get around: There are somewhere between 1 and 1000 cans in each stack. So come one, come all, to the greatest show on earth and the price of admission is nothing. Here is your chance to really get something for nothing!

Course in grammar coming up! This is especially for all of you who are too young to know or too old to remember your grammar. All adjectives have three cases. First there's the adjective itself—big, for instance. Then there's the comparative case, bigger, and the superlative case, biggest. Does it all come back to you now?

Well, anyway, superlatives are the words to use when speaking or writing of Virgil's. Lowest prices in town. Highest quality merchandise. Friendliest service and on and on. And now there is a new superlative—Fastest check-out service in Ocean Beach. Yes sir, all you good people have been flocking into Virgil's faster than you could get out—as you have no doubt noticed. But now, there's an extra check stand, with another one of Virgil's super-fast checkers on hand to get you out of there on the double. Those long lines are shorter now and happy days are here again for sure, for sure.

Sometimes that extra check stand is marked "Express, 6 items or less." To other day when we were in, there was some gal with two basketloads of stuff at that stand, and the patient checker was checking her out. Right behind her was a man, who, obviously, had been sent down to the store by his forgetful wife to buy a loaf of bread, for that was all he had. The look on his face told the story of what he thought of the delaying action in front of him, and since society frowns upon his telling her his thoughts, he no doubt took it out on his poor wife when he got home.

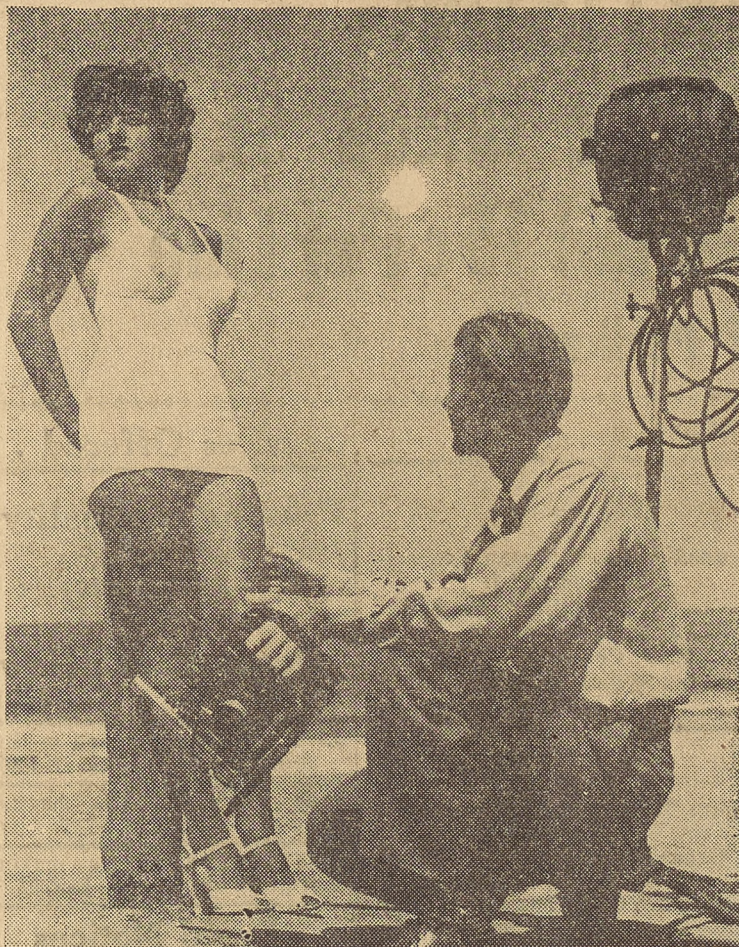

What kind of breakfast do you eat? Looks as if Virgil's object in life is to get everybody in Ocean Beach eating a man-sized breakfast, 'cause when he gives away a Sunday breakfast at his store on Saturday night, the menu looks like something a farmer serves for dinner at threshing time. For instance last Saturday night J. Nickolich of 4505 Coronado won a breakfast box that contained, among other things, 10 lbs. of potatoes, pineapple and a Morrell picnic ham. Bet he appreciated that prize, too, as Mr. Nickolich looks like the kind of guy who enjoys a hearty breakfast.

Great big boxes of assorted groceries also went to T. C. Surles of 4462 Santa Monica and Mrs. Cogle of 4860 Newport. Mrs. E. E. Davis of 4985 Santa Monica won a $5 meat purchase, and she won't have much trouble getting waited on, either, 'cause Virgil is going to start the number system at his meat counter. Don't forget to pick up a number next time you go in! And Mrs. Glen Noffsinger of 5155 1/2 Cape May won 5 lbs. of Folger's coffee and 5 lbs. of sugar. Those grocery prizes get bigger and better every week.

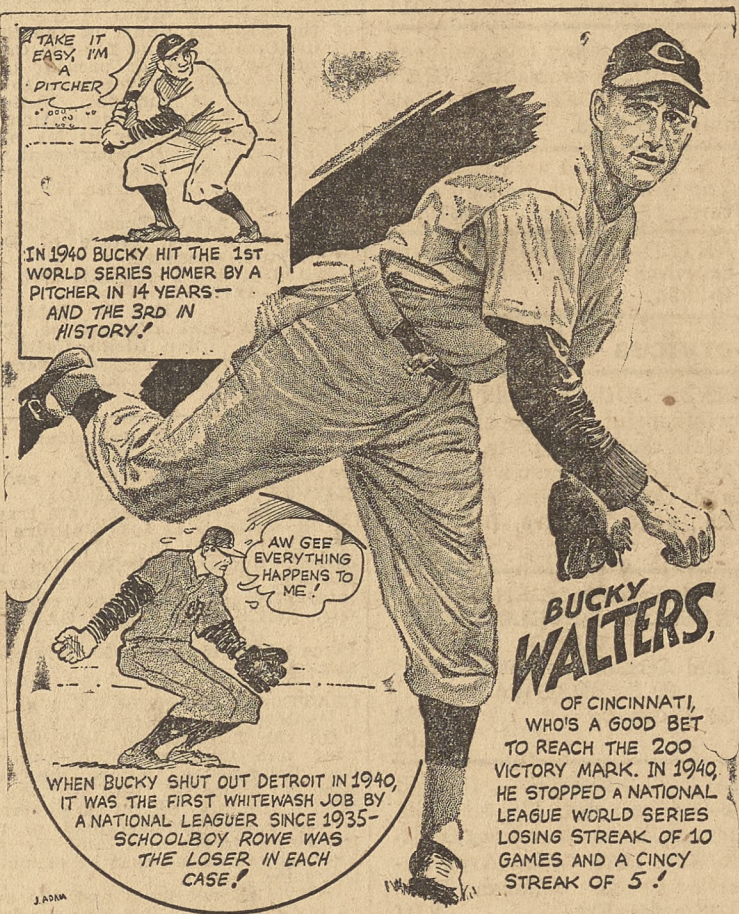

Mrs. K. L. Brumley of 4930 Niagara is going to have an awfully clean house, we betcha, 'cause she won $25 dollars worth of interior cleaning from Complete Interior Cleaners. Professional house cleaners will do for her house what professional beauty care will do for a face, and Mrs. Miller of 531 63rd St. won $2 worth of professional beauty care at Mary Jane's beauty shop.

Yessir, these drawings get more interesting every week, so don't you be the one to miss 'em. Tickets from the last two weeks are still good, and next Saturday, the person with the most tickets wins a ham. So start counting them, folks, and we'll see you tomorrow night at Virgil's.

Pacific Beach Celebrates Fiesta Days

The important fun event in this area this week is Fiesta Days, being celebrated at Pacific Beach, with a program filled with gay aquatic sports, and other events. The celebration was to start Wednesday, July 9 and continue through Sunday afternoon, July 13 when "Miss San Diego" will be officially chosen and crowned in the area on the ocean front just south of Crystal Pier. Above, pretty Joan Bentley, school board employee, is shown as she prepared for the bathing beauty contest, is arranging for Joan's picture. The "Miss San Diego" Beauty Pageant is a highlight of Fiesta Days, and will be held Saturday night at 8 at the Mission Beach Ballroom.

Mrs. Roy Brazell of 1054 Devonshire Dr. and her mother, Mrs. F. M. Kyde, also of Ocean Beach, spent four days of this week on a casual, spur-of-the-moment trip through the valleys of Northern California as far north as Fresno. Leaving June 29, they returned July 2.

Uncle Sam Says

"Where on earth did my money go?" How often have you voiced this question, half in wonder, half in dismay? It's so easy to fritter away ready cash. A dollar here—and a dollar there—and in the end nothing to show for it. And yet saving for the things you want—a new home, travel or future security—is easy and effective simply by allotting a portion of your income either through the payroll savings or by arrangement with your bank for the systematic purchase of United States Savings Bonds. Dollars go, your bonds grow. When you buy Savings Bonds regularly, you are building the nest-egg for whatever you've set your heart on.

Christian Science Subject 'Sacrament'

The Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Sacrament" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from I Corinthians: "Let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

In John's Gospel it is related that following the resurrection the disciples entered into a ship to go fishing, "and that night they caught nothing. But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore; but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. . . . And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. . . . As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread. . . . Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy writes, "This spiritual meeting with our Lord in the dawn of a new light is the morning meal which Christian Scientists commemorate. They bow before Christ, Truth, to receive more of his reappearing and silently to commune with the divine Principle, Love."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Clarke of Los Angeles were holiday weekend guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Clarke, 4761 Niagara Ave.

Theron C. Lake, 4338 Coronado Ave., celebrated his birthday July 6, at a party arranged by Mrs. Lake, to which several friends were invited. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Noel, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Freeman of Coronado.
